

Wildcats bash Commodores behind Herron's pitching

DELPHOS — Junior right-hander tossed six innings of 4-hit, 1-run ball versus Perry to pace Jefferson to a 9-1 non-league baseball triumph over the Commodores on a wet, overcast Wednesday afternoon at Wildcat Field.

Herron threw 63 pitches (41 for strikes) in his six innings, fanning three. Freshman Josh Teman mopped up with an inning of 1-hit, 1-K relief.

The Wildcats (8-4) only got six hits — led by 2-for-2 from Zach Kimmett (2 runs, 2 RBIs) — but also work their way for eight free passes.

Jefferson hosts Paulding today.

Perry falls to 2-5.
