

Main Street Holiday Extravaganza set Saturday

Written by Lindsay McCoy

Thursday, November 29, 2012 1:30 PM -

VAN WERT — Main Street Van Wert Holiday Extravaganza Gift and Craft Fair will be coming to the Hotel Marsh this Saturday, Dec. 1, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The entire community is invited to come view the diverse variety of items to be presented by over 30 vendors. Great Christmas gifts and decorating ideas will be among the many pieces to be displayed.

Vendors will be selling art, handcrafted housewares, jewelry, quilted handbags, children's boutique items, and many more one-of-a-kind objects. Direct sales representatives will be available from favorite home company product companies to display and showcase their latest items.

Each vendor will also be providing a raffle basket filled with their goods to be raffled during the day. Free goodies and refreshments will also be available for those who attend. This is not just an event for adults as Mrs. Claus will be present at the event to color with the children. There is also rumor on Main Street that Santa himself will be making an appearance to hear the wish lists of area children.

Admission to the event is free, and everyone is invited to make an appearance downtown for an old fashioned shopping experience. There will be an immense amount of displays to browse to find the perfect individualized Christmas gift for friends, family, and co-workers.