Blood drive hits mark

Written by Information submitted Wednesday, September 18, 2013 12:27 AM -

The American Red Cross held a blood drive at the Delphos Eagles on Sept.12. The goal for the day was 40 pints of blood and 40 pints were collected.

Those reaching gallon levels are:

Frances Kerner, one gallon; Wilbur Evans, two gallons; Diane Eickholt, six gallons; Yvonne Wenzlick and Joseph Obringer, seven gallons; John Wittler, 10 gallons; Bonnie Merschman, 12 gallons; and Robert Baumgartner, 21 gallons.

The next blood drive at the Delphos Eagles is scheduled for Nov. 14.