

Cookies for cans campaign to kick off Tuesday

Written by Information Submitted
Thursday, November 14, 2013 9:35 PM -

Information submitted

BLUFFTON — The Dough Hook, located on Main Street in Bluffton, will be holding its annual cookies for cans campaign. The store will collect canned goods in exchange for cookies beginning Tuesday through Saturday.

Patrons are asked to bring in a canned good and will receive a free cookie for each canned good they bring in. Canned goods will then be donated to area food pantries.

Hours of operation of The Dough Hook are from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and from 8 a.m. until noon Saturdays. Items may be dropped off at the business located at 117 North Main St., Bluffton.