Zombie Walk set Sunday

Written by Staff Reports Wednesday, October 10, 2012 12:51 PM -

The first-ever Delphos Zombie Walk will be held on Sunday (rain date Oct. 21). Zombies will congregate at the corner of Fifth and Main streets at 4 p.m. The walk will begin at 5 p.m. For the "Newly-Deads," the Zombie Walk is a fun and simple concept – dress in the best (or worst) Zombie gear, bring a donation of canned goods for a local food pantry, lurch and grunt down the street with the other zombies while staying in character, on the hunt for — brains. The walk will finish at Brentily's Steak House for the official Zombie Walk after-party! There will also be a 50/50 drawing and prizes for "Best Dressed," "Scariest," "Funniest," "Most Original" and "Cutest" (child's division) zombie costumes.

The walk is a family-friendly event. Everyone is invited to dress up and participate in the walk, just donate some canned goods or watch as Zombies take over Main Street. "America's Friendliest City" is about to become "America's Scariest City!" More details at http://www.facebook.com/delphoszombiewalk and
