

Jill Elizabeth Recker and Joel Nathaniel Denton were united in marriage at 2 p.m. on Dec. 15, 2012, at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Delphos, the Rev. Chris Bohnsack officiating.

The bride's parents are Stephen and Lisa Recker of Delphos. The groom's parents are David and Gail Denton of Granville.

Nuptial music was provided by vocalist Gayle Holdgreve and organist Lynn Bockey.

Matron of honor was Amanda Knueve of Delphos, sister of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Jodie Recker of Van Wert, sister-in-law of the bride; Beth Hellman of Fort Jennings, cousin of the bride; and Cyndi Black of Canal Winchester, friend of the couple.

Flower girls were Reese Hellman of Fort Jennings, goddaughter of the bride; Molly Recker of Van Wert, niece of the bride; Emma Hellman of Fort Jennings, cousin of the bride; and Katie Black of Canal Winchester, friend of the couple.

Ben Denton of Pipestone, Minn., brother of the groom, was best man.

Groomsmen were Alex Recker of Delphos and Keith Recker of Van Wert, brothers of the bride; and Andrew Denton of Granville, brother of the groom.

Grandparents of the bride are George and Carol Hellman and Pat Recker.

A reception was held at the Fort Jennings American Legion after the ceremony. Following a wedding trip to Hocking Hills, the couple reside in Grove City.

The bride is a graduate of St. John's High School and The Ohio State University. She is employed at the Buckeye Ranch in Grove City.

The groom is a graduate of Granville High School and Wabash College. He is employed at Emergitech, Inc., in Columbus.