

Jessica Massa and Adam Lee were united in marriage on June 14, 2013, at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, the Rev. Thomas Gallagher of St. Michael's in Wheeling, W.Va., officiating.

The bride is the daughter of William and Mary Massa of Delphos. The groom is the son of Larry and Debra Lee of Delphos.

Nuptial music was provided by St. John's Men's Choir and organist Marybeth Will.

Maid of honor was Megan Mesker of Delphos, friend of the couple.

Bridesmaids included Nikki Rode of Westerville, Jennifer Leininger of Delphos, Lindsay Davis of Youngstown, Mackenzie Stephenson of Marysville, Lindsay Fashinpaur of Garfield Heights and Holly Diegel of Avon Lake, friends of the couple.

Lauren Turner of Hamilton, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Ring bearer was James Dickson of Ann Arbor, Mich., cousin of the bride.

Andy Lee, brother of the groom, was best man.

Groomsmen included David Martz, Adam Wiltsie, Mitch Clark, Nic Wisher and Jared Wiltsie of Delphos, friends of the couple; and Anthony Massa of Wheeling, brother of the bride.

Grandparents of the couple are Robert Schmit and the late Barbara Schmit, the late Clarence and Sheila Massa, Jeanette Whitaker and the late Earl Lee and the late Carl and Margaret Picker.

The reception was held at the Veterans Memorial Civic and Convention Center in Lima following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to St. Lucia, the couple resides in Delphos.

The bride is a graduate of St. John's High School, Miami University and Case Western Reserve University. She is a speech language pathologist.

The groom is a graduate of St. John's High School, Bowling Green State University and the University of Dayton. He is the high school principal at St. John's.