

Feb. 16, 1977-Dec. 15, 2012

Audrey Lynne Moore, 35, of Payne, went home to be with her Lord and Savior at 11:25 a.m. Saturday, at Van Wert Inpatient Hospice Center, after bravely fighting a lengthy battle with cancer.

She was born on Feb. 16, 1977, in Paulding to Nancy (Thompson) and Tony Burkley, who survive in Payne,

On Aug. 26, 2000, she married Chad Moore, who also survives in Payne.

Survivors also include a son, Dane at home; a daughter, Mallory at home; and a sister, Alison Burkley of Hilton Head Island, S.C.

She is preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Marion and Bonita Burkley; and maternal grandparents, Virgil and Helen Thompson.

Mrs. Moore was the director of student life at IPFW and enjoyed providing the orientation program for students and parents and instilling leadership skills in her students to provide a more fulfilling college experience. She also attended Woodburn Missionary Church and graduated from Paulding High School in 1995 and received a bachelor's degree from Bowling Green State University in 1999. She obtained a master's degree in education from Indiana University at IPFW in 2004.

Funeral services will begin at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Woodburn Missionary Church, 5108 Bull Rapids Road, Woodburn, Ind., the Rev. Joel DeSelm officiating. She will be laid to rest at Lehman Cemetery, Payne.

Friends may call from 3-9 p.m. Tuesday and 9-10 a.m. Wednesday at Woodburn Missionary Church.

To honor Audrey's request, the family asks that in lieu of flowers, throws or other tributes, donations be made to one of the following memorials: Woodburn Missionary Church Youth Group; Community Health Professionals (Hospice); Audrey Moore Memorial for Leadership Development Fund or the Moore Children's Education Fund.

Arrangements are by Dooley Funeral Homes of Antwerp & Payne.
