

Oct. 31, 1936 - Dec. 20, 2012

Patricia Ann Baldauf, 76, of Van Wert, passed away at 11:35 p.m. on Dec. 20 at Van Wert Inpatient Hospice Center.

She was born on Oct. 31, 1936, in Van Wert to Harry Paul and Charlote L. (Thatcher) Semer, who preceded her in death.

On Oct. 14, 1961, she was united in marriage to Alfred E. Baldauf, who preceded her in death on Feb. 13, 2012.

Survivors include her brothers, Paul (Peg) Semer of Grover Hill and Jim Semer of Van Wert; and nephews and nieces, Greg Semer, Kirk (Kim) Semer, Todd (Susie) Semer, Kevin (Julie) Semer, Mike (Edna) Semer, Chris (Susan) Semer, John (Shirley) Semer, Marilyn Diller and Cheryl Ann Semer.

She was also preceded in death by a brother, John Semer.

Mrs. Baldauf worked at Van Wert Manufacturing for 27 years and at the Bowling Lanes for a few years. She retired from Findlay Industries after 5 years. She loved to bowl, golf and loved her cats. She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Van Wert, American Legion Post 178 Auxiliary, Van Wert Bowling Association and she was a member of the Van Wert Bowling Hall of Fame.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday at Harter and Schier Funeral Home, with Reverend Paul Miller officiating. Burial will follow in St. John's Cemetery.

Family and friends may call from 10-2 p.m. Saturday at Harter and Schier Funeral Home.