

June 12, 1924-Nov. 30, 2013

Treva M. McDougale, 89, of Ottawa and formerly from Leipsic, died Saturday at the Vancrest Care Center, Delphos.

She was born near Rockport on June 12, 1924, to Byron and Effie (Warnock) Wood, who preceded her in death.

Survivors include her son, Jeffery B. (Diane) McDougale of Delphos; her daughter, Pamela A. Brenamen of Fostoria; grandchildren, Robyn, Scott, Amy, Adam, Benjamin and Ashley; and six great-grandchildren.

Preceding her in death also were her infant brother, Waldo Wood; sisters, Lucille Schreck and Neva McDougale, who was Treva's twin; and several nieces and nephews.

Treva attended Columbus Grove School and helped work on the family farm during her youth. She was a member of the United Methodist Church, Leipsic, and also was a member of the Modern Mothers Club. She had been employed as a lab technician with the Libby, McNeil and Libby Co., prior to which she worked in retail with Ruben's Department Store, both formerly of Leipsic. In her later lifetime, she was an in-home care provider, lending assistance to many. She enjoyed watching and even kept a running record of scores of many sports events, especially football games.

The Ohio State University Buckeyes were her absolute favorite teams. Treva loved music; she was a friend to all a “Mom” to the whole neighborhood when her children were growing up.

Visitation at Hartman Sons Funeral Home, Columbus Grove, will be from 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. Tuesday.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday at the funeral home, Pastor Rich Rakay officiating. Burial will be in Truro Cemetery, near Columbus Grove. Donations may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.
