

The following individuals appeared Thursday before Judge Charles Steele in Van Wert County Common Pleas Court:

Probation violations

Zachariah Germann, 25, Elida, was sentenced for probation violations. He admitted to new violations involving violations of rules at the Van Wert County Correctional Facility. He was sentenced to prison for 4 years on each of three counts and 18 months prison on another count, all to be served concurrently. He was given credit for 323 days already served.

Shane Seekings, 28, Van Wert, admitted to violating his probation by failing to report to his probation officer.

He was re-sentenced to 3 years of Community Control with the additional condition that he is ordered to serve up to 6 months at the WORTH Center.

A 9-month prison sentence was deferred.

Eddy Blossom, 27, Willshire, admitted to probation violation for being convicted of Disorderly Conduct in Mercer County, having a positive drug test, not completing counseling and lying about counseling to his probation officer.

He was sentenced to 9 months prison with credit for 209 days served

Sentencings

Ronald Cobb, 22, Van Wert, was sentenced on a charge of corrupting another with drugs, a felony of the fifth degree. He was sentenced to 3 years Community Control, 60 days jail, an additional 30 days jail at a later date, 100 hours community service, substance abuse assessment and treatment, 2 years intensive probation, driver's license suspended 6 months, ordered to have no contact with the victim, ordered to pay court costs and partial appointed attorney fees.

A 12-month prison sentence was deferred pending completion of community control

Ream Thomas Davis, 55, Van Wert, was sentenced following his no contest plea to two counts of aggravated trafficking in drugs, each a felony of the fourth degree.

He was sentenced to 3 years Community Control, 30 days Electronic Monitored House Arrest, 30 days jail at a later date, 100 hours community service, substance abuse assessment and treatment, 2 years intensive probation, Driver's license suspended 6 months, ordered to pay court costs and partial appointed attorney fees.

A 9-month prison sentence was deferred pending completion of community control

