At 1:27 a.m. Saturday, Delphos Police were called to 504 S. Jefferson St. in reference to an assault complaint in that area.

Upon officers' arrival, the complainant advised officers that her adult brother, who lives across the street, had knocked her to the ground during a dispute.

The report will be forwarded to the Prosecutor's Officer for review and possible charges.