At 8:11 p.m. on Tuesday, Delphos Police were called to the 200 block of South Main Street in reference to an uncooperative subject at that location.

Upon officers' arrival, they came into contact with Paul Crummel, 40, of Delphos, at which time they found that Crummel had an active warrant for his arrest issued out of Allen County for failing to appear in a non-support case.

Crummel was taken into custody and later turned over to deputies from the Allen County Sheriff's Department.
