At 2:35 p.m. Monday, Delphos Police were contacted by a business in the 100 block of South Main Street in reference to a theft complaint at the business.

Upon speaking with employees, it was found someone had removed scrap metal and other metal items from outside of the business without permission to do so.

At 12:33 p.m. Friday, police were contacted by a resident of the 1200 block of Rose Anna Avenue in reference to a theft from a motor vehicle complaint at a residence in that area.

Upon officers speaking with the victim, it was learned someone had gained entry into the unlocked vehicle and had taken items from inside.

At 7:22 p.m. Sunday, police went to a residence in the 600 block of South Main Street to serve an active arrest warrant on a subject in that area.

Upon officers' arrival, they located Anthony Snyder, 23, of Delphos, at which time they took Snyder into custody on the warrant issued out of Lima Municipal Court for failing to appear on a prior drug possession charge.
