Woman faces arson charge

Written by Staff Reports Thursday, September 27, 2012 11:45 AM -

At 9:21 p.m. on Tuesday, Delphos Police were called to the 200 block of West Clime Street in reference to a disturbance at a residence in that area.

Upon officers' arrival, they spoke with the subjects involved and found Jennifer Lee, 42, of Delphos had attempted to start a fire inside a closet at the residence. The Delphos Fire Department was also contacted to assist in the investigation.

Lee was arrested on the charge of arson and was transported to the Van Wert County Jail and will appear in Van Wert Municipal Court on the charge.