On Friday, Delphos Police were called to the area of West Third Street and North Main Street in reference to two businesses in that area having their windows broken out.

Upon officers' arrival, both business were found to have large holes in their plate glass windows by an unknown object.